

ICAPGen<sup>SM</sup> ACCREDITED GENEALOGIST®
International

April 2010

The International Commission for the Accreditation of Professional Genealogists (ICAPGen) is a non-profit organization whose headquarters is located in Utah, United States of America. ICAPGen administers the accreditation program, which tests a genealogist's research knowledge and skills pertaining to historical documents and records. After a genealogist has met rigid requirements and passed a proctored test, he or she is credentialed with the organization.

ICAPGen is an international organization. The genealogists that are credentialed by ICAPGen live in different parts of the world. They can be credentialed to research the records of other countries.

This international list featuring ICAPGen Accredited Genealogist provides the names of the genealogist professional by the geographic area of their accreditation. Please visit <http://www.ICAPGen.org> for additional ways to locate an Accredited Genealogist professional and to learn more about hiring one.

CONTACTING AN ICAPGen ACCREDITED GENEALOGIST PROFESSIONAL

ICAPGen recommends that you contact more than one Accredited Genealogist professional to learn about their rates, time commitments, and reporting procedures.

When writing an Accredited Genealogist professional, include:

1. A copy of your pedigree chart.
2. Details on those lines that need work.
3. Details on research that has already been done on those lines that need work. (Send only copies of your documents. Do not send originals.)
4. A self-addressed, stamped return envelope, or one with international reply coupon(s) if you do not live in the same country as the genealogist.

For more information about hiring a genealogist, see the Family History Library resource guide, Hiring a Professional Genealogist available at: <http://www.FamilySearch.org>.
